

Multi MO & ACE Award Winning Male Vocalist

Adam is a dynamic performer whose vocal ability will make your nerve endings feel transformed and electrified.

With a strong lyrical element to his voice Adam offers a grand romance and genuine sensual intimacy in his performance.

Featuring an impressive variety of musical styles and a natural and infectious sense of humour, his stunning musical showcase includes a genetic gift, highlighting a clear and present sense of musical song craft.

In April 2001, an article in the Sydney Morning Herald described the voice of Adam Scicluna as “A musical standout”.

His career began in the world of concert work, particularly in the field of opera. Professional engagements include Victory for Papa New Guinea at the Opera House, Kerry-Anne Kennerley on 2GB, “A Tribute to Neil Williams” at Riverside Theatre, “Moments” at The Tom Mann Theatre, “Bush to Broadway” at Glen Street Theatre, “Some Enchanted Evening” at the Hills Centre and backing vocalist for Michael Crawford’s NSW tour.

Adam’s one man Cabaret show, “A Lyrical Life” was a sell-out at Riverside Theatre in 2001.

In addition to live performances Adam has also worked professionally in short and corporate film, TV and Radio commercials and as a guest performer on International Television.

During the last six years Adam has toured nationally and internationally in Europe and is constantly in high demand on the cabaret, cruise and corporate circuits including working with the sensational international corporate act “The Three Waiters”.

He is one of Australia's finest male performers and this is reflected in the Entertainment industry’s recognition of his outstanding talent and achievements.

AWARDS:

The Australian Entertainment “MO” Awards:

Winner - Male Vocal Variety Performer of the Year - 2006

Nominated - 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Winner – J’OK Encouragement Award for Best New Artist - 2003

The Australian Club Entertainment (A.C.E) Awards:

Winner: Male Vocal Performer of the Year – 2004, 2006 and 2007

Nominated - 2003 and 2005

Winner: Best New Talent – 2003

Nominated: Australia Club Performer of the Year 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007

Nominated: Best Production Show – 2004